

General Terms and Conditions of Elbe Flugzeugwerke GmbH for Sales abroad

1 Scope of Application

- 1.1 The general terms and conditions for sales contained herein (the "Terms") shall apply to all quotations and sales made by Elbe Flugzeugwerke GmbH, a Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung (GmbH) created and existing under the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, registered at the Local Court in Dresden, Germany, under the Company Registration No. HRB 1378, with its Head Office at Grenzstrasse 1, 01109 Dresden, Germany (hereinafter "EFW") concerning the products and services directly or indirectly supplied by EFW (the "Products" and "Services").
- 1.2 The validity of any customer (the "Customer") general terms and conditions, especially Customer's standard terms and conditions of purchase, is herewith expressly refuted.
- 1.3 Deviations from these Terms require the explicit written approval of EFW.

2 Offer and Acceptance

- 2.1 EFWs quotations are non-binding offers but must be seen as invitations to Customer to submit a binding offer. The provision of samples and specimens is for information purpose only and does not in any case constitute an offer.
- 2.2 The Products and/or Services shall be subject to due ordering (offering) by the Customer and order acceptance by EFW in writing. In case EFW's order acceptance differs from the offer of the Customer, such acceptance constitutes a new non-binding offer of EFW.
- 2.3 The Customer commits to order Products and/or Services amounting to a minimum order value of 250 EUR.

3 Documentation

Any documents such as pictures, drawings, details of weights and dimensions, calculations, etc. that EFW has transferred or made available to the Customer shall not be deemed to be a constituent part of the accepted order, unless it is expressly stated by EFW that they are included. EFW also reserves the right to make changes in the technical concept underlying the subject-matter of the relevant order, if this will not impair the quality and specification profile of the Products and/or Services defined in the order.

4 Prices

- 4.1 Prices and charges shall apply exclusively as quoted in EFW's order acceptance.

All prices shall be understood net and in accordance with the trade term agreed in the contract. Such trade term (hereinafter "Trade Term") shall be interpreted in accordance with the INCOTERMS in force on the date the contract is concluded. Prices are exclusive of any taxes or duties that may be levied in connection with the supply of Products or Services, and that shall be paid by the Customer.

- 4.2 Unless quoted as a fixed price for a specific period or agreed otherwise in writing, EFW may adjust all prices to the general cost trend (in particular to labour agreements, material and manufacturing costs alteration as well as significant exchange rate fluctuations).

5 Terms of payment

- 5.1 Payment shall be made no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of invoice. All payments shall be deemed to have been effected if and when they have been irrevocably credited for EFW's free disposal to EFW's bank account.
- 5.2 Failure to pay the purchase price by the due date causes the Customer to be in default without any further reminder by EFW.
- 5.3 If any payment due to EFW is not received on the due date, without prejudice to EFW's other rights at law, EFW shall be entitled:
 - a) to cease deliveries to the Customer until all outstanding and due payments arising under the business relationship have been effected, and
 - b) to claim default interest at the rate defined by law.

- 5.4 The Customer shall not be entitled to retain or set off payments due to EFW in respect of counterclaims except such claims are undisputed or legally valid. The Customer is entitled to exercise its retention rights only to the extent such rights are based on the same transaction.

- 5.5 If a substantial deterioration occurs in the financial circumstances of the Customer after the contract has been concluded or if circumstances become known to EFW that put at risk payment by Customer in total or in due time, EFW may, notwithstanding its other rights provided for by law, refuse to perform its obligations under the contract until full payment of due debts has been effected or Customer has provided sufficient security for debts not yet due.

6 Delivery

- 6.1 Delivery shall be effected as agreed in the contract. General Trade Terms shall be interpreted in accordance with the INCOTERMS in force on the date the contract is concluded.

- 6.2 Unless otherwise agreed, the delivery shall be made "ex works" (EXW), Dresden.
- 6.3 EFW is entitled to make partial deliveries provided that this is reasonable for the Customer.

7 Lead Time

- 7.1 Lead times shall only be binding if they have been agreed to by EFW in writing.
- 7.2 Adherence to the lead time shall be subject to clarification of all commercial and technical questions by Parties and Customer having fulfilled in due time all its obligations under the contract. The delivery time will be extended – notwithstanding EFW's other rights due to delay of the Customer – by the specific period for which the Customer falls short of its obligations under the contract.
- 7.3 In the event of despatch being delayed at Customer's request, EFW will demand reimbursement of any expenses incurred. If the Products are stored at EFW's premises, the storage fee shall amount to 0,5% of the total purchase price per week of storage or part thereof, but in no case more than 5%. The Parties to the contract may prove that higher or, as the case may be, lower storage costs have been incurred.
- 7.4 If EFW delays delivery, the Customer shall be entitled to claim liquidated damages for delayed delivery in so far as it can be proved that the delay has been caused through the fault of EFW and that the Customer has suffered a loss as a result of such delay.
The liquidated damages shall be 0,5% for each full week of delay, with a maximum liability of 5% of the purchase price corresponding to such part of the Products or Services in delay. EFW's liability shall be limited to compensation for typical, foreseeable damages.

Any further liability on the part of EFW on account of delay shall be excluded subject to the provisions in clause 13.1.

- 7.5 After reaching the maximum liquidated damages for delay in delivery, the Customer may rescind the contract only upon unsuccessful expiry of a period of time set to EFW to effect the delivery, provided that the obstruction is not temporary, the delay is unreasonable to the Customer and EFW is responsible for such delay.
In any event, exercising the right of rescission of the contract shall constitute a waiver by Customer of any claim for damages.

8 Transfer of Risk

- 8.1 The risk of loss or random deterioration will be transferred to the Customer corresponding to the agreed Trade Term.
- 8.2 In the event of delivery being delayed due to circumstances attributable to the Customer, the risk shall be transferred on the date of EFW's notification of the readiness for shipment respectively readiness for acceptance.

9 Receipt

Without prejudice to its rights under clause 11 of these Terms, the Customer shall take delivery, respectively acceptance, even if the Products and/or Services show minor deficiencies.

10 Retention of Title

- 10.1 The Products shall remain the property of EFW until paid for in full to the extent that such retention of property is valid under the law of the area where the Products are located. If retention of property is not valid under such law, EFW reserves and may exercise any other rights related to the Products as permitted by such law.
- 10.2 The Customer shall upon EFW's request assist EFW in taking any measures necessary to protect EFW's title to the Products or any such other rights in the country concerned. In these cases the Customer shall not grant any pledge or lien or other right or transfer title in the Products to any third party. In the event that the Products are seized by any third party, or a pledge or lien is granted by court order to such third party, the Customer shall notify EFW thereof immediately.

11 Warranty

EFW shall be liable for defects of the Products and Services to the exclusion of any further claims notwithstanding however clause 13.1, as follows:

- 11.1 The Customer shall examine the supplied Products and Services immediately after delivery in order to identify any defects. The Customer shall notify EFW in writing within one (1) week of discovery by Customer of such apparent defect. If the Customer fails to provide notification within the exclusion period, the Products and Services shall be deemed to be approved and Customer thus waives its warranty rights hereunder.
- 11.2 In the event of a defect, EFW undertakes to first, at its option, repair or replace the defective Products or Services.
- 11.3 In AOG cases regarding P2F Conversion Services Customer shall contact EFW's AOG desk:

In the absence of a response to the AOG request within twelve (12) hours, the Customer shall be authorised to carry out the repair work to the converted Aircraft himself.

- 11.4 EFW will bear solely the costs necessary for the purpose of repair or replacement. Replaced Products become property of EFW.

11.5 EFW is entitled to refuse the repair or replacement according to the statutory rule. EFW may further refuse the repair or replacement if in spite of EFW's respective request the Customer fails to return the defective Products to EFW's premises within due time or the Customer fails to pay a reasonable proportion of the remuneration taking into account the defect.

11.6 The Customer may within the frame of its statutory rights define a reasonable period for EFW - subject to the statutory exceptions - to repair or replace the defective Products or Services and after effectual expiry of such period of time the Customer may rescind the contract. If however the defect is insignificant the Customer may only claim a reasonable reduction of price. In all other cases the right of the Customer for price reduction shall be excluded.

11.7 With regard to claims for compensation and reimbursement of expenses on a defect, clause 13.1 shall apply.

11.8 The Customer shall not be entitled to any rights as a result of defects that are due e.g. to nonconforming storage, operation, maintenance or excessive or inappropriate use of the subject-matter of the contract, by the use of unsuitable tooling and resources, improper changes, corrective maintenance work and damage to seals in the subject-matter of the contract or by other breach of contractual specifications and product regulations on the part of the Customer or a third party.

11.9 EFW shall not be liable for defects resulting from normal wear and tear. For Products delivered as used or outclassed the Customer shall have no warranty rights.

11.10 Warranty will be limited to those defects, which become apparent twelve (12) months after delivery to the Customer. For Products and Services which are found defective within such period and are replaced or repaired by EFW the warranty period shall be extended to twelve (12) months from the date of such repair or replacement. However, the warranty period so extended shall at the latest expire twelve (12) months after the original warranty period has expired.
